Dear Parents/Caregivers

An excursion has been planned for Yrs 7-9 girls to Girls Rugby League Gala Day at Lakeside Sporting Complex, Raymond Terrace on Tuesday 24 November, 2020 to supplement the work being done in the class in which your son/daughter participates.

Travel will be by bus, leaving Merriwa Central School at 6.45am and returning by 4.30pm. Alternative transport should be organised if your child catches a school bus. Any changes throughout the day will be communicated via the Skoolbag App or Facebook. The cost of the excursion is $10.00.

Full school sports uniform is to be worn. Slides and out of uniform hats are not permitted. Hot food will NOT be available on the day, and due to COVID-19 restrictions, students will be required to bring their OWN water bottle.

In order to participate, students MUST wear a mouthguard. Students will not be allowed to take the field unless they have one. Mouthguards can be purchased from the pharmacy from $11.99 (level 1). Due to demand, it is best to order these early. Headgear and shoulder pads are also strongly advised.

This gala day will be full contact. Due to the nature of the sport, training sessions will be run prior to the excursion, where students will learn the fundamentals of rugby league, especially tackling in a controlled environment. Students will require mouthguards and their sports shirts in order to participate in contact training. Training will be during Tuesday and Thursday lunch breaks and if needed, during sport. Due to NRL's COVID safe plan, spectators are not permitted. If your child is unwell leading up to the carnival, they cannot attend.

Please sign the consent form attached and return with medical information form and money to school by Wednesday 18 November, 2020.

The group will be supervised by Mr Vaughan. For further details contact the teacher co-ordinating the excursion.
